State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, William Borah served the people of Idaho in the United States Senate longer than anyone in state history; and

WHEREAS, Senator Borah served in the U.S. Senate from 1907 until his death in 1940, immeasurably enriching the history and political legacy of Idaho and its people; and

WHEREAS, William Borah was known at the highest levels of government around the world as the "Lion of Idaho" and "the Great Opposer"; and

WHEREAS, William Borah played a pivotal role through five presidential administrations in shaping the domestic and foreign agendas of the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby honor the 100th anniversary of Senator William Borah's service in the U.S. Senate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho in Coeur d'Alene on this 5th day of December in the year of our Lord two-thousand and seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-second and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred eighteenth.

A blue ink signature of C.L. "Butch" Otter is written over a large, faint "COPY" watermark. The signature is stylized and cursive.
